

Graduate School Scholarship for International Students

[2021. 06. 01.]

International students are accepted to the graduate school through two admission tracks, and the types of graduate scholarships available are different depending on the track. Be advised to check your admission track for the relevant scholarships.

※ How to check your admission track

[☞ Menu to Check Admission Track (입학전형 조회메뉴) : One-stop Service (원스톱서비스) – School Register (학적부) - Search for Academic data (학적자료조회) – Classification of within the Quota/beyond the quota (정원내외구분)]

1. General Admission: Students who enter the general admission track (within the quota)
(Students who entered Spring Semester 2021)
2. Special Admission: Students who enter the special admission track (beyond the quota for international students)
(Students who entered before Fall Semester 2020 and will enter Fall Semester 2021)

Graduate school scholarships differ according to the admission track.

Internal university scholarships are granted to students accepted to the General Admission track. However, the students accepted to the Special Admission are eligible for internal university scholarships or the Global Korea Scholarship which is granted by the Korean Government.
